

DIABETES UPDATE

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 2022

8:00a.m.-1:00p.m.

Venue: Four Points by Sheraton-1150 Wellington Rd, London, ON

Platform: ChimeLive

AGENDA

---

8:00 a.m.-8:15a.m.	Welcome &amp; Introduction. Dr. Stewart Harris (C.M.) MD, MPH, FCFP, FACPM
8:15 a.m.-9:00a.m.	Physiologic and Therapeutic Links Between Adipose Tissue and Diabetes Dr. Andre Carpentier MD, FRCPC
9:00 a.m.-9:40a.m.	Remission of Type 2 Diabetes following Non-Surgical Interventions Dr. Natalia McInnes MD, MSc, FRCPC
9:40a.m.-9:55a.m.	Break
9:55a.m.-10:35a.m.	The Future of NASH Dr. Anouar Teriaky BSc (Hons), MD, MPH, FRCPC(C)
10:35a.m.-11:15a.m.	The Future of Technology in Diabetes Care Dr. Kevin Pottie MD, CCFP, MCISs, FCFP
11:15a.m.-11:25a.m.	Break
11:25a.m.-12:05p.m.	IPE in Cardiovascular Disease: Knowledge Translation of the New Canadian Dyslipidemia Guideline Dr. George Dresser MD, PhD, FACP, FRCPC
12:05p.m.-12:45p.m.	The Impact of Diabetes due to COVID-19 Dr. Peter Lin MD, CCFP
12:45p.m.-1:00p.m.	Summary &amp; Adjournment Dr. Tamara Spaic MD, FRCPC, Cert. Endo

Overall Learning Objectives:

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

1. Explore the role of obesity and the relationship to diabetes and fatty liver.
2. Acquire a greater understanding of the emerging role of technology in the care of diabetes.
3. Describe the role and impact of COVID-19 and diabetes

In-Person Registration Fees:

Physicians: $100.00

Allied Health Care Professionals: $50.00

Medical Students/Residents: No Fee

Virtual Registration No Fee

To Register please visit: <https://www.sjhc.london.on.ca/diabetes-update>